PEOPLE IN THE NEWS

Congratulations and Best Wishes to:

• Edgar & Polly Nothnagle who celebrated their 31st wedding anniversary on September 27th.

• Shannon and Rob Martin as they celebrate their 30th anniversary on October 29th.

• Matt Wagner as he finishes his internship in CCC's Pro Shop and begins his class work in October. Matt passed his Playability Test and is now an official Assistant Golf Professional.

• Jo Weitzel on her 80th birthday. Best wishes for many more.

• Bob and Jo Weitzel as they celebrate their 60th wedding anniversary.

Jo and Bob Weitzel share some time together on the deck.

Condolences and sympathy to:

• The Weitzel family on the death of Bob's brother

• Lynn Hamilton on the death of her father.

Well wishes to:

• Yvonne Peters and also to Ramona Rathbun, who fractured her wrist while playing with the grandchildren.

Linda Patten has many reasons to smile about her golfing skills.

Congratulations to:

• Linda Patten for the honor of being selected to play in the WRDGA Captain's Cup at Clifton Springs. There are 16 players on the Rochester team and they will play a team from Syracuse. Play begins on October 1st. Good luck to Linda and the Rochester team.

• Scott Harris Jr. Scott has had a very successful golfing season. In July, Scott was the runner-up in the RDGA John H. Ryan Jr. Memorial Championship.

2006 SNOWBIRD TOURNAMENT

The last tournament of the year was aptly named. Though we lacked actual snow, to many, it felt as if it might fall at any time. The skies were gray and the temperature very chilly. In the Ladies' Division, Carolyn Wynne and her partner, Patty Cole, emerged victorious with a 68. In second place, only 3 strokes out, was the team of Yvette Green and Beth Wallace. One stroke behind was Linda Ringer and Helen Thuong who took 3rd, while Sharon Batcheller and Barb King came in 4th of the leaders for the day.

In the Men's Division, George Ukshe and his partner, Bill Neidel, posted a 61 to win the tournament. Only one stroke out and taking 2nd place was the team of Mark O'Donnell and Steve Reidmiller. Gary Ringer and Bill Briggs followed in 3rd place, followed by George Parry and Dave Buczynski.

The winners of the Women's Division of the Snowbird Tournament were Caroly Wynne (on left) and Patty Cole.

George Ukshe and Bill Neidel were the 2006 Snowbird tournament winners in the Men's division.

The 2006 Snowbird Tournament was played under gray skies and in very chilly weather. This is only one of the many teams sporting full cart covers, some with heaters.

Karen Ahlstrom waits in the cart as Anne Clements takes a 2nd shot during the Snowbird.

FROM YOUR PRO

Please spend or pay your Sweeps Account balance by October 1st.

There will be a Pro-Am at CCC on Friday, October 13th with a 12:30 shotgun start. Please sign up in the Pro Shop.

Pro Shop hours have changed for the remainder of the season. The shop will open at 8am weekdays and close at dusk; weekends the shop will be open from 7am to 6pm.

Tom and Sue Guinan.

GETTING TO KNOW YOU – Sue and Tom Guinan

Sue Guinan grew up in the Los Angeles area of California. Her mother worked for the Walt Disney studios. Sue got to meet some of the celebrities who were household names that most of us would remember. When Dick Clark moved the American Bandstand show from Philadelphia to Los Angeles, dancers were needed and Sue was chosen to dance on the show. Sue was on American Bandstand for 6 months in 1966. Once she opened the show with the "Hot dog, It's American Bandstand" slogan, while giving a fellow dancer a hotdog. Tom and Sue met while he was serving in the navy in San Diego. When Tom left the navy, they moved to Rochester. Tom and Sue became members of CCC 3 years ago.

A MESSAGE FROM BOB WEITZEL TO CCC MEMBERS

The membership dues structure for the 2007 season will remain the same as they were for the 2006 season. The Association dues will be raised to $25 per member.

HEARTFELT THANKS

"I, Steve Clements, want to thank everyone involved with my MS Golf Tournament. We had a great day under sunny skies, played some good golf and raised some serious money to benefit those with MS. We were successful enough to purchase a handicap golf cart. The cart allows me and others to continue to play golf, a game I love, and to do so safely. The cart's mechanics are incredible and turf friendly. I wish to thank the Weitzels for their lead sponsorship, as well as all the sponsors, the staff of CCC, Chris Green of the Cozy Kitchen, those who donated prizes, all the volunteers and of course, the participants. I am putting miles on the cart already. Thanks to everyone again. We are already looking forward to the 2007 tournament."

Steve Clements tees up during the Snowbird tournament with the assistance of the new handicap golfcart. Note how the seat rises to offer support but does not interfere with his shot. The clubs are carried in the front of the cart.
